

Lab 7.

Write a new JSF application with Facelets that works as follows:

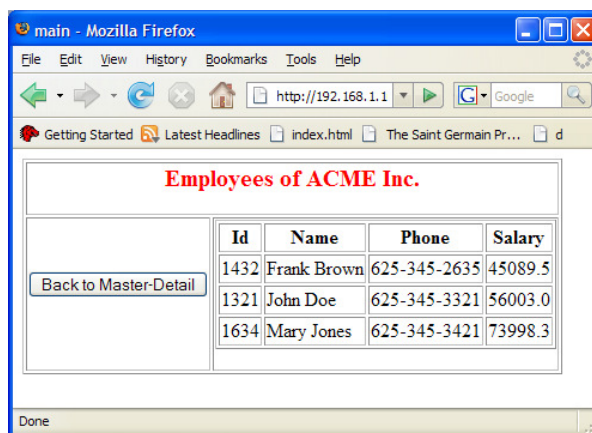

If you select an employee from the left menu, then you should see the detailed data of this employee in the right content panel:

If this works well, add the following functionality:

If you click the ShowAll the following page is shown:

If you click Back to Master-Detail button then we get back to the original master-detail page:

