Lab 10. Composite component lab.

First implement the spinner component and check if it works.

Then modify the spinner code such that if a user enters a number that is greater than the maximum then set the value to be the maximum. If the user enters a number smaller than the minimum then set the value to the minimum.